

Using the BCS online Event Booking System

Link: www.bcs.org/events/registration

The online event booking system is located on the BCS secure area. This can be accessed using the above link, or by logging into the BCS website (www.bcs.org) using the login link in the top right of every page.

The event booking system is available to all delegates. You do not need to be a member of the BCS to access it but you will need to create a log in and password. This can be used to register for future events also.

If you have already registered to use the secure area then go straight to section 2 (below).

1. How to Register

a. BCS Member

If you are a current member of the BCS go to the log in page of the BCS website using the links above. You will then need to click on the Register link to bring up the below form (<https://wam.bcs.org/wam/MemberRegistration.aspx>).
